NASSER to NIXON: "Mr. President, your move next!" ("your worst move for peace is more jets for aggressors")

By BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN

Founder 1946

League For Peace With Justice in Palestine

The President of the United States and members of Congress surely must know that supplying additional Skyhawk and Phantom jets in 1970 to Zionists in occupied Arab territories will have disastrous consequences for the United States, and maybe for the entire world. They surely must know also that anyone who supplies a gun to another person to go out and commit murder is as guilty of murder as the person who pulls the trigger of the gun. Today the United States stands before the world

It shatters the sensibilities of persons informed on the Middle East background that the President of the United States and members of Congress should be in earnest about supplying Zionists in occupied Arab territories with additional military, economic and financial assistance. They are primarily not much concerned with the best interests of the United States. Their interest at this time must run in other directions, probably their chances of being re-elected.

As this goes to press, there is very little room left for doubt that President Nixon's next move in the Middle East crisis can avoid plunging the United States
